- Experience in helping services but not limited to health care, social services, education or corrections
- Specific expertise in Human Resources, I.T., financial management, community development, building maintenance, marketing, advocacy, social media or fundraising would be an asset
- Time, energy & commitment to attend monthly board meetings and participate in board projects
- Courage and integrity to guide and lead a dynamic human services agency

Expectations for board members include:

- Attend monthly board meetings and actively serve on one of our sub-committees
- Commit to 5-6 hours of volunteer time per month
- Develop a working knowledge through active participation in strategic planning and board governance functions such as review/approve agency budget, annual work plan, policies etc.
- Advocate for the needs of the agency
- Commit to a three year term of office.

Note: You do not have to be a person of Catholic faith to serve on this board.
